WARC Media Awards 2017 – Effective Channel Integration Shortlist announced

Global, 17 November 2017 – The Effective Channel Integration shortlist is now released for WARC’s Media Awards, an international competition that rewards pioneering communications planning which has made a positive impact on business results for brands around the world.

A total of 19 campaigns have been shortlisted in the Effective Channel Integration category which looks for how sophisticated communications architecture helped boost campaign effectiveness.

The shortlisted entries have run in a wide range of markets – Australia, Brazil, Europe, India, Israel, Italy, New Zealand, North America, Philippines, United Arab Emirates, United Kingdom and United States – and are for a variety of categories including FMCG, food and drink, telecoms, automotive, media, beauty, household goods and restaurant sectors.

Commenting on the judging process, jury chair Charlie Chappell, Senior Director, Global Integrated Media, The Hershey Company, said: “It’s great to see that marketers are embracing the new norm of a constantly changing communications landscape. Through the submissions, it is clear that they have proven that to do great work you must reach across various, dynamic channels to achieve your business objectives. I applaud the marketers for pushing the boundaries and continuing to stretch their learnings that has led them to award-winning campaigns.”
